TRADITIONAL FEATURE FOR CHRISTMAS WEEK

Page 1 of our Christmas issue today tells the story of Christ's birth as it would have been told if modern newspapers had been printed at that time. Today's current news appears on inside pages. The Bethlehem story was mainly written by a member of the Scottsluff (Nehr.) Star-Herald staff, and the dispatches are based on the story of the Christ child as it was written in the Bible.

We are using the same format as we used during last Christmas when the reaction was so rewarding we decided to make it an annual event.

Herod In Dred, Seeks To Delude Sages From East

MANGER MIRACLE STORY TOLD OVER AND OVER AS GROUPS COLLECT

JERUSALEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—An apprehensive Herod sits on the throne of Judah, and is much disturbed at the miraculous birth of Jesus in Bethlehem.

This was brought to light with the recent visit here of sages from the East who were seeking the newborn King of the Jews. Having heard of their inquiries, Herod hastily called together his chief priests and scribes who write the laws, and demanded them to tell him more of the prophecies of Christ's coming.

Then he summoned the wise men for questioning, and led them to believe that, if they would go to Bethlehem, discover the Child and return and tell him about it, he would journey there himself to pay homage.

Those who heard Herod's interview with these Eastern wise men say he was given only evasive answers.

Political commentators say it is understandable that Herod should feel uneasy at the rise of a leader who will capture the imagination of a discouraged people. His reign has been a singularly unhappy one due to the pressure from Rome.

The Emperor Augustus has lately accumulated foreign property and subjects through a campaign of military invasions, and controls about all in this part of the world that is worth taking. This has occupied the minds of the people, but has increased Roman extravagance. Palestine is one of these conquered countries and Herod is the king of Augustus' own choosing.

Some regard Herod's fear of a ruler who will overthrow him in a material sense as being unfounded.

They maintain that the significance of the Messiah is spiritual rather than political, and point out that he has always been prophesied as a Shepherd of Souls rather than as a military deliverer.

Herod's nature, these commentators say, makes it impossible for him to understand a Prince of Peace.

Magi's Wisdom Is Greatest In World Declares Casper

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—This what Casper, one of the wise men, said about their belief:

"The wisdom of the Magi is the greatest of all wisdoms on earth, because it knows its own ignorance. And that is the secret of power. We worship fire as a symbol of Him. We keep men always looking and waiting for a new sunrise, but we ourselves understand that the darkness is equal to the light and that the conflict between them will never be ended."

The Weather

Wednesday, fair with cool winds from the Mediterranean. Thursday fair, with clouds from the north in afternoon; rising temperature.

Northern Palestine: unsettled; little change in temperature. Lower Arabia: Stormy weather, unsettled conditions.

Astrologers of Jerusalem Predict Sorrow, Tragedy For Holy Babe

JERUSALEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—Great tragedy will mark the future of the child born in Bethlehem, say this country's foremost astrologers. The stars, they say, reveal:

He will be in great danger while He is still an infant, and because of an attempt, upon His life, many children will be killed. He will live to be hailed in Jerusalem, but will later be rejected and betrayed by one close to Him.

Crucifixion will be the manner of His death, and He will undergo unspeakable suffering.

There are other venerable men here, who read aloud pathetic words which foretell the sufferings of the promised Messiah.

These reveal that He will be "despised and rejected of men, a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief."

Their search of the records, it is believed, will continue for many weeks, and will entail many secret conferences with not only members of their craft, but with the priesthood in the temple itself. Whether their finding will be made public in detail is not known.

The astrologers added that this preliminary report of their findings as revealed by their efforts probably would be considerably altered by further study, and indeed, might be radically altered by results of research and study.

Brilliant Star Presaged Sacred Mystery Of Birth

JERUSALEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—Eminent astronomers here admit to the appearance of a new star. They say that at infrequent periods such stars, or novae, as they term them, suddenly appear with great brilliance, are evident for a time, then fade away.

Last night's star, they explain, resulted from the conjunction of the two great planets, Jupiter and Saturn.

Dogs and Sheep Overcome By Celestial Radiance

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—The shepherds' dogs and sheep were overcome also by the strange light from heaven last night, the men report.

PLAINLY AWED,

Simply Clad Boy Says, 'Mary Smiled At Me!'

NAZARETH, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—A young boy—one of the band of shepherds which was visited on the hill near here last night by a heavenly host of angels who told them of the birth of the baby prophet, was a shy narrator of events transpiring at the stable when the presence of the child became known.

Roughly clad, and plainly awed by his part in the divine drama, he gave the only clear impression gained of Mary, the mother of the Holy Child. The other shepherds were too inspired, and the wise men from the East too preoccupied with the identity of the infant to notice details which the clear of a child seized upon.

"Everything seemed so quiet in the stable," he replied to questions. "I noticed that even the pigeons didn't coo like they usually do."

"Did Mary or Joseph say anything to anyone?" he was asked.

The lad flushed, then confided: "Joseph asked me to help him fix the hay so it would be more comfortable, and then Mary smiled at me after she had been looking at the baby, and so I asked her if they didn't have better places in the inn. She answered, low-like: 'There wasn't any room for us.'"

"I felt sorry for her; and then she smiled again and just whispered: 'But I like it here. The inn was so noisy, and the streets are full of loud people. The animals are peaceful. You mustn't feel sorry for us.'"

"And do you know, somehow I wasn't. I still feel strange. It is as though something too wonderful to talk about has happened to me. I can't explain it. But I feel so peaceful inside."

PROPHETS OF OLD FIRST TO ANNOUNCE PRINCE OF PEACE

ISAIAH, JEREMIAH, MICAH
ALL DIVINED ADVENT OF SAVIOR AMONG PEOPLE
'WHO WALKED IN DARK'

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—For centuries prophets have forecast the birth of a Christ Child, and historians have made many references to the coming of a Messiah.

These are some of the names which have been applied to him: Immanuel, Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace, The Lord of our Righteousness, Son of the Highest, and Jesus.

Since the birth here today of the Wonderful Child, and the excitement and rejoicing that have followed, local scribes have been searching history and the Bible and point to the predictions of Isaiah, Jeremiah, Micah, and others.

The following quotations are given as vital to the Messiah's coming:

The Lord spake again to Ahaz saying, Ask thee a sign of the Lord thy God. . . . But Ahaz said I will not ask, neither will I tempt the Lord. And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David. . . . Behold a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall

Mary and Joseph Both Descendents Of Royal Line

NAZARETH, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—Although Mary, mother of the Savior, and her husband, Joseph live among the humble folk here, where he is a carpenter, they are of the royal family of Judah, and the descendants of King David.

The Jews keep exact lists of their genealogies, thus explaining the present situation.

For the old prophets said that the Christ child was to be born at Bethlehem whereas Mary lives in Nazareth, 50 miles distant. But when the Emperor Augustus called for the regular 10-year census, he ordered Herod to register the people according to the tribe to which they belong. Mary and Joseph, belonging to the family of David, were required to go to Bethlehem.

Shopkeeper Has Doubts About Jesus

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—"All the excitement has made more business for my shop but I do not believe he is the Christ."

That was the opinion of the proprietor of a small shop here who has not yet visited the now famous birthplace of the infant Jesus.

"I really believe this is just something arranged to make more entertainment for taxpayer week," he went on. "Why, the true Christ will be so mighty that there will not be a doubt by anyone when he comes. That light was just a falling meteor and those sleepy shepherds were startled by it. You know how a story can grow."

He said he had seen too busy to go along with the crowds to the stable, and added that the innkeeper would probably have more business than ever.

"I have an extra room here at the back," he said thoughtfully. "If I had only known—" and he hurried to wait on a customer.

Messiah Meets World Torn By Internal Strife

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—Christ was born last night. They say he is a king. Into a world torn with strife, into a dictator-ridden country that trembles at the clashing swords of Rome, has come the ray of light so long awaited by a troubled people.

It is a far cry from the golden pillars of Solomon's temple to the crude stalls of a cattle barn.

For hundreds of years the memories and tales of the glories of ancient Jerusalem have been treasured in the hearts of a scattered race. For generations they have unrolled their papyrus scrolls and reassured themselves that one day a Redeemer of Mankind would restore their kingdom. With mighty armies He would vanquish a tyrant Caesar, and rebuild their shining city.

They thought of Him in terms of shining raiment and a golden throne; they didn't expect swaddling clothes and manger hay.

They could see Him proclaimed by heralds with silver trumpets; they didn't think his companions could be rough haired oxen and sleepy-eyed goats.

They expected urns of smoldering incense, but not the aroma of a stable.

Multitudes would prostrate themselves on the ground in His presence, they believed; they didn't suppose that a harried innkeeper would suggest that the royal family sleep in the barn because all his rooms were full of taxpayers.

Some say that this baby born last night to Mary and Joseph of Nazareth couldn't possibly be the Messiah foretold in Scriptures. But there are others who remember the words of the prophet Isaiah, of Jeremiah and of Micah and with unspeakable joy hail Him as the Saviour of Israel.

Inn Keeper's Faith In Miracle Strengthens

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—Bewilderment marked the features today of the keeper of the little inn where Mary and Joseph sought shelter last night. But behind the bewilderment could be sensed a dawning belief.

"There was something different about her face," he said of Mary. "It was tired—but different. And when Joseph turned away leading the ass she was riding, something about him, too, made me want to call back."

"I went to the stable this morning," he mused. "Only it didn't seem like the same stable, somehow."

Lowly shepherds with flocks on nearby hills First to note Miracle of Celestial Visitation.

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—The eyes of all Judea are turned with awe today upon this little town as word emanates from it that the long-prophesied Messiah was born here last night.

Miraculous happenings and visitations of heavenly hosts which confounded them with radiance and divine song, lead inhabitants to believe that this is the prince of the throne of David who, Scriptures have said, will reunite the scattered tribes of Israel and reign over them as the son of God.

The appearance of a new star of great magnitude and luminousness, convinced them that it portends to the ancient prophecy.

GREAT JOY RULES IN TOWN OF DAVID AS REALIZATION DAWNS

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—It is impossible to describe the feeling of great joy that pervades Bethlehem today as the coming of the long-heralded Messiah is realized by the majority of its inhabitants.

The shepherds probably experienced the most poignant sensation for it was to them that the you have a saviour born in the town of David, the Lord Messiah. And here is a proof to you: you will find a baby wrapped up and lying in a stall for cattle.

"Then a host of heaven's army suddenly appeared beside the angel, extolling God and saying, 'Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.'"

Having sung this song, the angels went back to heaven, the light faded away, and all was dark as before.

"We began talking together about these strange sights and sound," the shepherd related.

"We didn't stop to think what would happen to our flocks, or wait until morning; we went at once. When we saw all was as the angel had said, we told everyone about it."

Magi Pursued Star Of East To Son Of Mary

Now when Jesus was born . . . behold, Magi from the east came to Jerusalem, saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews?—for we have seen his star in the east, and come here to worship Him.—Matt. 2:1.

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—The mysticism and beauty of the Orient has mingled with the simplicity and reverence of a little town made holy by a divine occurrence.

Three sages from the East, impressiveness in the richness of their many-colored silks and gold insignia, walked the dusty streets of Bethlehem today and told of their journeys across desert and plain to lay rare gifts at the feet of a tiny babe.

They spoke briefly and eloquently of the prophecy, "There shall come a star out of Jacob, and a sceptre shall arise out of Israel," and they described the brilliance and comet-like action of this star which had arisen in the east, and which they had followed until it halted over the Judean city.

Present Gifts to King

These three Magi who bear the names of Caspar, Melchior and Balthazar, were familiar with the Hebrew prophecies which foretold the advent of the Messiah, and had long waited for the star, they said. To prepare for the journey, and to buy gifts for the promised King of Israel, they sold their possessions and equipped a caravan.

Last night, surrounded by humble shepherds and barnyard animals, they fell to their knees and worshipped the young child with great joy, and presented him with frankincense, myrrh and gold.

Not in Palace
When they were asked if the commonplace surroundings seemed out of keeping with Christ's significance, Melchior, this wise man, answered:

HOLIDAY CHOIR — Recently, the Lemon Grove Women's Club heard a program of holiday music presented by the Helix choir. One of the members, who arranged the program, was so taken with it that she penned a note about it to this newspaper.

Because the note is in keeping with the holiday season and is so elegant in expressing the appreciation of the club, we take the liberty of reproducing the note.

Dear Editor:

I have just come home from the Lemon Grove Woman's Club where we heard that truly magnificent choir of Helix

High School, all 75 voices. We were so thrilled, I'm still in a dream.

Mr. Rue (choral director) is doing a truly wonderful job of giving these teen-agers an appreciation of music they will never forget. I was truly inspired. I think you will be interested in knowing they will be on television during the holidays.

I feel so uplifted by the experience of hearing these voices that I won't mind in the least that part of my taxes that goes toward education. I can assure you there is no delinquency in the Helix Choir. I feel very humble after hearing such music.

School Building Program Eyed By Citizen's Group

Methods for meeting future building needs of the La Mesa-Spring Valley Elementary School District are being studied by a citizen committee, according to a report from the District last week.

Under the chairmanship of George Berry, local builder, the building committee of the elementary district's citizen's advisory Council is continuing its important service to the community, according to Dr. John Harbeck, president of the Council. The committee is currently studying the complex State Aid program, with a view toward publishing a detailed, yet simple explanation for distribution to the public, Berry announced.

The group met last Monday night with Dr. Ted Dixon, associate superintendent, who is in charge of the local building program.

Results of current studies will be presented to the total C. A. C. membership, and upon approval, to the Board of Education, Berry said.

As in previous years, the committee includes engineers, building materials suppliers, contractors, and other citizens in occupations connected with school construction.

Last year the committee published the handbook "Criteria for Economy", a school building guide for architects and administrators. The book was produced as a result of more than 12 months of study and has been reprinted three times in order to meet requests from other school districts and building agencies, said Berry.

William Kirk In 'Strike' Exercise

WITH THE FIRST FLEET (Spcl) — William N. Kirk, teleman first class, USN, son of Mrs. Ruby M. Kirk of 1670 Dupont Dr., Lemon Grove, participated in a Striking Force training exercise (Strike), with the First Fleet off the coast of Southern California recently.

The operation emphasized the latest and most modern tactics in air and guided missile strikes against land mass, air defense, anti-submarine and replenishment operations.

Fourteen thousand personnel and 37 ships of the First Fleet participated, as well as carrier and land based aircraft from Southern California bases.

Tourists Spend $144 Each

A total of 247,396 pleasure visitors from other states and foreign countries spent an average of $144.13 each in Southern California last month, leaving behind when they returned home, the sum of $35,756,114 to enrich the local economy.

This was reported today by F. M. Banks, president of the All-Year Club, community organization which carries on the Southland's tourist advertising campaigns.

During the past year, the 36th year of the advertising campaigns, an all-time record of 4,363,003 tourists was attracted here and spent $608,773,000, Banks said.

Square Dance News . . .

CIRCLE EIGHT

Date for the Harley Smith dance has been set for the fourth Friday on March 1958.

Al Schaeffer was club caller for Circle Eight when they met December 13. Guest callers were Clarence Montgomery, Roy Close and Walt Ellis. The decorations were in the Christmas theme, and the committee responsible for the job well done was comprised of the Ed Laneys, the Jay Littlers, the Don Hillars, the Darrel Bastas, the Jim Bodiness. In main business, the election of a nominating committee took the lead. Those elected were Tommy Hines, Ruth Engle, Walt Ellis, Jim Bodine and Andy Anderson.

A potluck dinner was held and an exchange of Christmas gifts followed. Animated toys provided a lot of fun and laughter.

The door prizes provided by Ruth and Harry Engle, were won by Vinie Harvey and Arlene Anderson.

PROMENADERS

The Promenaders New Year's Eve dance will be open. The $1.25 per couple admission will include door prizes. For tickets call John Johnson at HO 9-7412.

At the December 18 dance Frank Dyson was club caller, and was assisted by guest callers Bill Keller, Paul Coston and Al Ryder. The Square Notes provided live music. Hosts and hostesses were Harry and Loreen Randolph, Paul and Doris Remele, and Ralph and Willie Mae Sowers.

The guest list included Floyd and Ramona Bryant, Rennie and Eve Reynolds, Ben and Stel Cooley, Bill and Betty Keller,

Community Service Planned By Methodist Church Xmas Eve

A Christmas Eve Candlelight Service of music will be given for the whole community by the choir of the Lemon Grove Methodist Church at 11:00 p. m. in the Sanctuary. Music will be under the direction of Miss Ramona Court. Organist for the service will be Mr. Ronnie Simmons, who is associated with Conrad's Mortuary in Lemon Grove. According to one tradition, Jesus was born about midnight. This service of music, planned for the hour between 11:00 and midnight, will retell the familiar events leading up to the Saviour's birth. The Sanctuary will be lighted with candles symbolizing Christ as the Light of the World. Outdoor torches will also guide the way to the Church. An open invitation is extended to the public.

Ralph and Ruth Meier, John and Grace Zeysa, F. L. Rasteelec, Roy and Dorothy Garrett, Terry and Ralph Freshour, and Charles and Florence Swift.

"Happy Birthday" was sung to Harry Randolph, Frank Payne, Bob Bradfield and Alice Jero. A ham potluck dinner was served.

Prophets Of Old First To Announce Prince

call his name Immanuel.—Isaiah 7:14.

Will Come at Dark Hour

The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined . . . For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given, and the government shall be upon his shoulders, and his name shall be called WONDERFUL COUNSELOR, THE MIGHTY GOD, THE EVER-

LASTING FATHER, THE PRINCE OF PEACE, of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and justice henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this.—Isaiah 9:2-7.

To Gather Lost Tribes

I will gather the remnants of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds . . . and I will set up shepherds over them which shall feed them, and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the Lord. Behold the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous branch, and his God; and they shall abide; the king shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgement and justice in the earth . . . And this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD, OUR RIGHT-

EOUSNESS.—Jeremiah 23:3-6.

Now gather theyself in troops, O daughter of troops; he hath laid siege against us: they shall smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek. But thou, Bethlehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall come forth unto me one that is to be ruler of Israel; whose goings forth have been from old, from everlasting . . . And he shall stand, and feed in the strength of the Lord, is the majesty of the name of the Lord said, Hail, thou are highly favored, the Lord is with thee: blessed are thou among women. And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be. And the Angel said unto her: Fear not, Mary; for thou hast found favor with God.

MERRY CHRISTMAS FOR YOUNGSTERS — Supervisor David W. Bird (center) joins Ray Boggs and Carmine Ursillo in looking over a mock-up of the proposed home of the Lemon Grove Little League. Included in the proposed plans is a new youth facility to replace the one presently located on School Lane. Boggs, left, is vice chairman of the Lemon

Grove Youth Center Control Board; Ursillo is president of the Lemon Grove Little League. Bird will supply the county funds. Area Represented in the model is in Monterey Heights, north of the elementary school. Supervisor Bird says he hopes to have a permanent home for Lemon Grove's youth activities before another Christmas rolls around. — Tappy Foto

Congressman Utt (Right) and his Assistant, Bob Geier

Bob Geier, Administrative Assistant to Congressman James B. Utt (R) of Santa Ana, will return by Christmas with his family to Orange County where he will re-establish a Public Relations business in Santa Ana. Geier went to Washington, D.C. with Congressman Utt in 1952 and has served as his assistant since that time.

In commenting on the change,

Geier stated, "I regret leaving my Washington position with Congressman Utt, one of the finest men it has been my privilege to know and work with. However, my heart is in California, and with the experience gained in this work, I feel that I can be of service to the business men of Orange County." He has been attempting to find suitable office quarters but as yet has been unsuccessful.

Geier became active in the affairs of the Congressional Secretaries Club in Washington. This is composed of Congressional and Committee clerks and assistants, and its membership averages well over a thousand. Geier was elected to successive offices culminating with the Presidency which he is resigning upon leaving Washington.

Influential Capitol Hill personnel recently urged him to be a candidate for the position of Minority Clerk to the House of Representatives. This is an elective position by the Republican Members of Congress and one of the top staff positions. However, he has decided to continue with California and has declined to be a candidate.

Two S.V. Dogs Die Of Poison

People in the neighborhood of Bancroft and Kenwood Drives last week, were very much disturbed when they learned that two dogs had died of (supposedly) poisoning at about the same time. The dog of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hayes of Kenwood Drive, died at the pet hospital of Dr. Fred Sherman, Spring Valley veterinarian. Dr. Sherman said it was his opinion that the dogs had gotten some warfarin, a chemical used in rat poison. Warfarin acts on the blood flow, preventing clotting.

The other dog belonged to Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Danner of Memory Lane. The dog apparently was poisoned while the Danner family was in Missouri, after Mr. Danner had attended the funeral of his father. Mr. Danner said the dog did not die right away, but by degrees. He called the sheriff's department into the case.

People in the Valley who have dogs running loose are warned to be careful of their pets safety, as it is not certain whether the two dogs which died were poisoned accidentally or deliberately.

ED KOTERBA

Reports from Washington

MISSILE OUTLOOK: GOOD

Despite gloomy setbacks in 1957, the U. S. will regain prestige in '58 in the honest opinion of most military leaders here.

In the first place, we will have at least a dozen satellites orbiting around the earth during the year. Our intermediate-range missiles (1,500 miles) will be in mass production.

The intercontinental ballistics missile (5,000-mile range) should be successfully tested and ready for production.

The most exciting of missiles, the Navy's "Polaris", will be ready for test-firing shortly after the end of '58 (two years ahead of schedule). The "Polaris" carries a nuclear warhead and is fired from submarines—from beneath the surface of the water.

MISSILE 'STALEMATE'

There is already talk at the Pentagon about a "missile stalemate"—a balance of nuclear warhead missiles between the United States and Russia—perhaps by 1959.

Experts say this would act as a definite deterrent to war, as has the atomic bomb stalemate the past two years.

ADAMS-NIXON

The backbiting between Vice President Nixon and Presidential Assistant Sherman Adams received such wide press coverage that President Eisenhower ordered a public "kiss-and-make-up."

This would be done "when the opportune moment presents itself."

A photograph of the two chatting warmly—something never recorded before—may be arranged. But those close to the White House are guessing that Adams won't go for the gag.

Meanwhile, the rift between Nixon—his apparent to the White House—and Adams—the man who's really the "keeper of the house"—is becoming greater.

KRUSCHEV'S ROCKET

Nikita Krushchev's blustering about the U. S. withholding pieces of the rocket from Sputnik I is just a bluff, State Department sources say.

The Communist leader accused us of finding the downed rocket just on the meager chance we actually did. . . . And if Americans did, indeed, find the pieces, nobody is talking. . . .

FIVE RETIRING

Democrats are bantering it about that the raft of Republican retirements in the Senate are a "significant mark of defeatism" for the GOP in '58.

Those who announced they are retiring next year: Sen. Martin, Pa.; Sen. Jenner, Ind.; Sen. Knowland, Calif.; Sen. Payne, Maine; and Sen. Smith, New Jersey.

Actually, each senator has a special reason for planning to quit Capitol Hill—either health or greater political aspirations.

It is true that no Democratic senators have announced their retirement this past year. This includes Sen. Matt Neely of West Virginia who has been disabled at the Naval Medical Center for more than a year.

IN PENNSYLVANIA

There are increasing expecta-will run for the Senate seat being vacated by Sen. Martin. And the man most likely to try to step into Leader's shoes is Richardson Dillworth, Philadelphia's Democratic mayor.

IKE'S TRIP

The President's doctors would have preferred that Ike not take the trip to France and the NATO meetings, according to several White House reports.

The doctors okayed the trip however, because they felt Ike was so set on going that to keep him home would have done him more harm than good.

DOUBLE DEDUCTIONS

Congressmen are expected to introduce dozens of bills in 1958 aimed at encouraging science education. . . . Predominant will be income tax enticements, such as offering double deductions ($1200) for every dependent child enrolled in science. . . .

LOS LUGARINOS PLAN NEW YEAR'S EVE PARTY

Los Lugarenos will hold a formal dinner dance on New Year's Eve at Casper's Ranch in El Cajon. Noisemakers, confetti, hats and a steak dinner will put members and guests in a holiday mood. Mr. and Mrs. Si Hubbard are chairmen for this event. Their committee includes Messrs. and Mrs. Thomas Thomas, Robert Beasley, Walter Gregory, Joseph Marsh, Paul Stewart and Arthur Vandenburg.

New member couples who will be introduced are Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Szytel and Mr. and Mrs. William Martin.

NATIVITY SCENE — It takes a lot of doing to produce a truly outstanding Nativity scene, but that is what they did up at the Skyline Methodist church.
Some of the pre-presentation activity included such things as modeling and fitting. In the above picture one of the "wise men" is being garbed.
The model is Pastor Derric Johnson and administering to him are Mrs. Sue Spisak and Mrs. Don Le Grand. The Nativity scene complete with live actors and live animals, will be on display every evening until Christmas eve.

Bugnik Launched by 'Jr. High Students

Using an eight stage launcher composed of eight hydrogen filled balloons, the advanced science class of Spring Valley Junior High School launched Bugnik last Wednesday at 12:45 p. m. The ping-pong sized satellite housed a sow bug and therefore gained its official name.

The project started as a gag in the school paper, "The Spring Valley Highlights," and was taken up seriously by members of the science class. Channel 8 of San Diego took pictures of the event after being informed about the launching by Harold Melloway, student publicity director of the project.

Other students participated in the project were Karen Hughes, Russell Lowe, Steve Jepson, and other members of the science class. Mr. Richard Lantz is the teacher of the advanced group of thirty students. Bugnik was successfully launched and Spring Valley Junior High has announced it is now bowing out of the satellite race.

Roger Humphrey In Scholarship Semis

Ten Grossmont Union High School District Seniors have qualified for the semifinals in 1958 National Merit Scholarship competition.

Seniors qualified are Bernard Silbernagel, Caroline Houston, Dean Ayers, Thomas Johnson, and John Humphrey of Gross-mont, James Henderson, and William Steils from Helix; Jane Breedon and Paul Magnusson of El Cajon; and Roger Humphrey of Mount Miguel.

These students will have a three hour College Board Examination on January 11. Highest scorers from this group will then take the last test in May when 800 finalists will be selected and will receive scholarships.

Winners select their own colleges and courses, and the value of the grants range from $100 to $2200 per year depending upon financial need.

District senior counselors are Mrs. Eva Quicksall, Grossmont; Ross Wallis, Helix; Mrs. Ve Gwin, Mount Miguel; and Paul Davis, El Cajon Valley High.

LOMITA VILLAGE NOTES

by Edna Rice — HO 9-6832

A boys' club for the age group 13-17, called The Marathans, has recently been organized in Lomita Village. The purpose is for the building of character and training for leadership. David Spisak is the chairman of the group.

♦ LOMITA VILLAGE ♦
Mrs. Anna Lasher, formerly of 8565 Wade St., is spending the winter in Scotia, N. Y., with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beers.

♦ LOMITA VILLAGE ♦
Debbie and Bobbie Axt, children of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Axt of 8565 Wade St., celebrated their recent birthdays with a joint party. Debbie celebrated her fourth birthday and Bobbie his third. Among out-of-town guests was Mrs. Peter Amundsen of Fresno.

♦ LOMITA VILLAGE ♦
Rev. Orval C. Butcher, pastor of the Skyline Wesleyan Methodist Church, made two recent out-of-town trips. He addressed the Christian Women's Club, a national organization, in Santa Ana. Rev. Butcher's topic was "A Christmas Meditation" and he also favored the audience of 150 with several vocal numbers. The Santa Ana group is the largest in the State. Rev. Butcher also supplied the music at a program at Pasadena College, where the speaker was Rev. Ivan Sisk, director of Youth for Christ in San Diego.

Mr. Richard Bettell of 427 Encinitas Ave. recently demonstrated before several classes at Audubon Elementary School his miniature model of an Early California gold mine, as operated by the '49ers. His demonstration and talk made a big hit with the youngsters. Mr. Bettell, who is employed by Rohr Aircraft, helped organize the Rock Hound Club at Rohr. He says that the young fry frequently consult him about their collections. In view of the trend of world events, a lively interest in rocks and minerals on the part of the young might well lead to a future scientific career.

♦ LOMITA VILLAGE ♦
The Monterey Heights Baptist Church presented its Christmas program Sunday. The Sunday School children participated and the Young People presented a play entitled "Why Christmas". The Ladies' annual Christmas party was held at the home of Mrs. Quentin Martin, 8070 Canton Dr., Lemon Grove, Monday.

♦ LOMITA VILLAGE ♦
Dr. Terence Geddis, Principal of the Audubon Elementary School, announced that during the pre-vacation days, he and the faculty and the school nurse have high-lighted the subject to safety during the Christmas holidays. Movies have been shown to stress the need for carefulness in the home regarding disposal of Christmas wrappings and lights and ornaments for the Christmas tree, etc. Also, emphasis has been placed on caution in crossing the streets and watching out for holiday drivers.

♦ LOMITA VILLAGE ♦
Audubon students, parents, and friends had a wonderful time at the annual Christmas program, "The Christmas Story". All present pronounced it one of the best Christmas programs they had ever attended. The Christmas room parties one of the biggest social events of the school year was held Friday. The others two important social events being the Valentine's day party and the end of school.

♦ LOMITA VILLAGE ♦
The Christmas Party of the First Baptist Church of Encanto was sponsored by the Men's Brotherhood. It was a family affair. Refreshments were served, and there was candy for the children.

♦ LOMITA VILLAGE ♦
At a recent meeting of the Men's Brotherhood of the First Baptist Church of Encanto, the annual election of officers was held, at which Irving Thompson was elected President; Ralph Stuart, vice-president; and Robert Sprague, secretary-treasurer.

Carol Ann Peters Weds Florida Man

Miss Carol Ann Peters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Peters, 8851 Greenview Place, Spring Valley, and Mr. Warren J. Ingram, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ingram of Miami, Florida, were married the afternoon of December 8, in the Christ Lutheran Church, La Mesa, Rev. A. S. Lucas officiated.

The bride designed her gown of white peau de soie trimmed with beaded re-embroidered alien lace appliques. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses.

Her attendants were Miss Gaie Tressie Sever, bridesmaid, and Misses Kathleen and Sandra Peters, cousins of the bride, as flower girls. They were gowned alike in dresses of emerald green taffeta and carried bouquets of white camellias.

The groom's attendants were Dean Strasser, best man, and David Newton and John Walling, ushers.

The new Mrs. Ingram attended San Diego State College, where she was a member of Alpha Gamma Delta Sorority. Mr. Ingram was graduated from San Diego State, where he affiliated with Theta Chi Fraternity.

After a short trip to the north, the newlyweds flew to New York City, and then to Potsdam, New York, where Mr. Ingram is associated with Universal Atlas Cement Company.

Following their wedding, a reception was held in the church social hall, with some 150 guests attending.

Record Attendance Seen At Episcopal Church

The Rev. J. Phillip Bartlett announces that St. Philip's Episcopal Church, corner of Palm and Hardy Rd. is expecting attendance at its midnight Choral Eucharist, Dec. 24. The Service begins at 11:30 p. m. Carols will be sung by the Choir before the Service. Miss Michelle Sayward, soloist.

On Christmas Day at 10:00 a. m. another Choral Eucharist will be celebrated.

Due to road construction, members and visitors may find access to Church parking lot by a short road from Palm St. at the west property boundary line.

WED — Sandra Irene Culver formerly associated with this newspaper, is shown before her marriage to Gerald Morgan Edwards, Dec. 19 in the Vista La Mesa Christian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards will honeymoon for two weeks in Seattle, Washington and will then return to the Coronado area to reside. Mr. Edwards is stationed with the Air Force on North Island.

Mrs. Edwards is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Culver of 795 Grossmont Ave., El Cajon.

The bridegroom is from Seattle, Washington.

Avocado Czar Doing

OK Says Farm Bureau

Enforcement of avocado regulations by the county agricultural commissioner was called "vigorous" and "commendable" by directors of the San Diego County Farm Bureau in a resolution adopted recently.

The resolution was in answer to criticism aimed at Dean F. Palmer by an avocado shipper in a recent hearing before the County Board of Supervisors. Palmer's inspection methods were questioned by the shipper.

Farm Bureau policy at state level calls for "gradual reduction of high price supports on farm products". Clifford Bates, of Valley Center, told the directors. Bates, who is state delegate, said opposition to reducing farm subsidies has been coming from California cotton and rice growers.

Roger Winchester, of Jamacha, reported farmers are being crowded out of the El Cajon Valley area by residential development. Also, he said, there are not many farmers left around Lemon Grove.

Elected as directors-at-large were John Pruett, of El Cajon, Howard Potts, of Spring Valley; and Hart Dunham, of Lakeside. Raymond Foster, of Ramona, newly-elected president, presided at the meeting, held in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium.

Magi Pursued Star Of East

"The King we seek is not to be found in a palace, nor among the rich and powerful. If the light of the world and the glory of Israel had been appointed to come with earthly splendor, it must have happened long ago. For no son of Abraham will ever again rival the power which Joseph had in the palaces of Egypt or the magnificence of Solomon throned between the lions of Jerusalem. But the light for which the world is waiting is a new light, the glory that shall rise out of patient and triumphant suffering. And the kingdom which is to be established forever is a new kingdom, the royalty of unconquerable love."

'Look Among the Lowly'

An intimation of the uncertain future was voiced when he added: "I do not know how the turbulent kings and peoples of the earth shall be brought to acknowledge the Messiah and pay homage to Him. But this I know: Those who seek Him will do well to look among the poor and the lowly, the sorrowful and the oppressed."

The men seemed little disposed to talk about returning by way of Jerusalem and encountering Herod. There is a rumor that they are making the caravans ready to go through Egypt.

Wherever they go, they are followed constantly by crowds of both adults and children, their stateliness and air of wisdom being especially interesting.

Angels Hail Birth Of Jesus

the conviction of the angels' message upon them, that they immediately accepted him as the promised Saviour, and fell upon their knees and worshipped him. Magi Kneel Too

Following in quick succession the visit of the shepherds, a caravan of wise men, or Magi, from humble birthplace bearing jewels and precious gifts. To them too, this was a long-awaited event, since they are close students of astronomy, and were watching for the star. When it appeared they regarded it as the sign that the child had been born which the prophet had foretold.

While the largest part of the population here is talking of the event in tones of unexpressed awe, and plainly regard it as a means by which they will be delivered from their Roman oppressor, there are many who are frankly skeptical. They feel that the future of Christ will come from a more significant source. Everyone Excited

The whole atmosphere here has been one of unusual excitement for the past few days, since that was the time decreed by Augustus Caesar for all taxpayers in Judea to be registered. Mary and Joseph, being of the house of David, were required to come to Bethlehem; and although Mary was an expectant mother, and the 50-mile journey from Nazareth in Galilee was extremely arduous for her, the urgency of the order was such that they dare not say.

From the meager details gained from keepers of public places, it appears that Joseph had failed to make any reservation for lodging. The low temperature of the winter night forced them to the stable, where they made themselves as comfortable as they could in the straw. They suffered no ill effects from the experience, however, and those who visited the little family after the birth became known, report that an aura of light transformed the dingy surroundings into a place of beauty.

Mary indicated that she would call the child Jesus.

GRASS CAN HELP RUNOFF SAYS DAVIS PROF

Planting grass in those areas covered by brushland can produce more rain run off for all concerned with the water problem, said Robert H. Burg, Assistant Professor of Irrigation, Davis. Working first with small test plots and now with increasing larger watershed installations, he has found that convert to grass in various locations of California increased average yearly run-off by about two acre-inches per acre.

A copy of the bulletin "Brushland to Grassland" may be obtained by writing or phoning the Farm Advisor's Office Bldg. 1, 4005 Rosecrans Street, San Diego 10, telephone CY 8-4181, ext. 271.
